ITERARY AGEN

Please note: This is not the submission form for you to submit your Children's & YA Fiction Manuscript to our team. Rather this is an example template of our form to help you prepare for your submission by allowing you to first read through the questions we ask, compiling the information and elements you will need beforehand. To submit your work to TGLA, please click the pink button labelled 'Submission Form' back on the Children's & YA Fiction submission page. We look forward to reading your work!

Your Fiction Submission

We ask that all authors only submit one work or project to us at a time. Please wait for a response before submitting again.

Please do not use this form to submit your full manuscript as we only have capacity to read and consider the first three chapters at this stage in the submissions process. If, after reading your first three chapters, we would like to see more of your submission, we will reach out directly via email to request your full manuscript.
